

BRITISH NAVY READY TO ACT

Orders Are Issued to Mobilize the Warships as a Matter of Precaution.

NAVAL RESERVES ARE CALLED OUT

Twenty-Five Thousand Men Are Ordered To Be Put in Readiness for Any Event and Active Service.

London, Oct. 26.—The British fleet are moving to enforce British demands on Russia.

The admiralty last evening issued the following official note: "After the receipt of the news of the tragedy in the North sea preliminary orders for mutual support and co-operation were as a matter of precaution issued on Monday from the admiralty to the Mediterranean, channel, and home fleets."

The order calls into co-operation twenty-eight battleships, eighteen cruisers, about fifty torpedo boat destroyers and other armed craft.

The Mediterranean squadron, commanded by Admiral Sir Compton Dromville, was at Venice when the admiralty's dispatch was received. The admiral immediately canceled his sailing program and went southward in a dispatch boat, escorted by two or three cruisers. He has since sent instructions for the whole fleet to follow him to Gibraltar.

Fleet Is Coaling.
The channel fleet, commanded by Vice Admiral Lord Charles Beresford, arrived at Gibraltar on Monday and is now coaling. It is reported that this squadron will go westward as soon as it has coaled.

The home squadron, commanded by Vice Admiral Sir Arthur Wilson, and which has been in northern Scottish waters, sailed southward this evening. The crews were greatly elated and were given a "big send off" at Cronbarry.

The Daily Express states that instructions have been issued for the mobilization of the naval reserves, totaling 25,000. This was not confirmed officially.

The Morning Post states that the leave of all naval officers was stopped Monday morning, and that the admiralty has provided for the concentration in the event of an emergency of an overwhelming force at any point required.

The sudden change in the situation, as disclosed by the movements of the British fleet, is caused, it is believed, by a dispatch from St. Petersburg, quoting a high Russian official as saying that a delay of several weeks may occur before Russia can reply to the British note.

Resents Russian Comment.
Russian comment which attempts to make light of the North sea incident is deeply resented by the government and people in this country.

"England will not be satisfied with an apology and the payment of a money indemnity," said an official. "The real punishment of the responsible offenders will be promptly insisted upon. It is hardly doubted, however, that a sane government would concede this demand."

The suspicion of Russia's attitude has not been entirely allayed by the fact that King Edward has received from Emperor Nicholas himself a cablegram expressing the deepest regret and practical acknowledgment that Great Britain's peremptory note will meet with a reply conceding every demand for apology for the act of aggression against the British fleet, compensation for sufferers, and punishment of the officers responsible for what is everywhere conceded to have been a gigantic blunder.

Insist Fleet Shall Stop.
From the London press this morning comes the demand that Russia must recall its fleet, or at least stop it at some neutral port pending an investigation and the punishment of the officers responsible for the North sea outrage. The newspapers declare that there will be work for the British fleet if the Russian squadron attempts to proceed on its journey to the far East without first making an adequate explanation.

Voicing this demand the Standard asks: "Is this ill-omened squadron, with its demoralized crews and incompetent officers, to continue its crazy career and become an intolerable nuisance and menace to the civilized world?"

All the morning papers display great impatience over the delay of the Russian government in according satisfaction for the North sea affair. The czar's communication, while it relieves the immediate tension, is to be only a personal expression of regret, and it is argued that unless the Russian government speedily follows suit a situation of the greatest danger will arise.

Position Is Critical.
Commenting on the announcement that no reply to the British note can be made by Russia until an official report is received from Vice Admiral Rojestvensky, the Standard says: "If this means that we are to obtain no reparation until the Russian government has instituted an elaborate and protracted inquiry the position may speedily become highly critical."

Resents Russian Comment.
Russian comment which attempts to make light of the North sea incident is deeply resented by the government and people in this country.

Uncle Sam—I'll mighty soon show them that they can't break in there.

MADISON MAYOR AFTER SALOONS

Minors Are Not To Get Any Drinks Over the Madison Bars in the Future.

(Special to The Gazette.)
Madison, Wis., October 26.—Mayor Curtis of Madison is hot on the trail of saloonkeepers who dispense intoxicating liquor to minors. At his instigation four booze sellers have been arrested for selling liquor to boys under age. George Bassler, a high school student and a boy 16 years of age, admitted to the mayor that he spent $1,000 of his father's money in the saloons. Some days he used as much as $50 a day. A joint called the Nit de Bum, operated by Julius Pleh within close range of the University of Wisconsin, will be closed up by the mayor. In this place a great number of young men, including students of the university, have lost considerable money by playing cards and other gambling devices. The case is an aggravating one and the mayor is determined to have high prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

STATE NOTES

Plans are now under consideration by the supreme officers of the Equitable Fraternal union, whose offices are in Kenosha, for the erection of a $70,000 temple.

The Merchants' hotel, William H. Lewis, proprietor, the oldest hostelry in Racine, has gone into bankruptcy, with liabilities estimated at between $4,300 and $4,500, and assets not given.

Racine aldermen have decided to permit Main street bridge to remain open for heavy traffic, but have authorized Mayor Nelson to close it if he sees fit, and have recommended the building of a new bascule bridge.

The new church of the Swedish Baptists at Kenosha will be dedicated on next Sunday, and it is expected that many of the leading members of the denomination in the state, will attend the dedicatory ceremonies.

Wearing a suit of clothes recognized as being a part of the stuff stolen from the Grove general store at Neenah on the night of Aug. 18, John Spadlosky, a well-known young man, has been arrested charged with the crime.

The big wheelhouse at the Lullin-Powder works, in the town of Pleasant Prairie, west of Kenosha, was blown up and completely wrecked by an explosion of blasting powder Monday evening, and many employees of the plant narrowly escaped being burned by the powder.

Gen. C. B. Boardman has issued orders to the effect that hereafter the 1904 Infantry drill regulations of the United States army must be followed in the military instruction of the National guard, and is now sending out copies of the regulations to the officers of the militia.

The Appleton Waterworks company has employed the city of Appleton in continuing the construction of a new sewer on Mason street, and demanded that the city show cause before Judge Burnell of Oshkosh within twenty days why it should not be so restrained, claiming that the outlet of the new sewer will be so close to the intake pipe of the water plant as to pollute the water of the river.

Willing to Help.

A lazy man said to his wife: "We've nothing left to eat; it seems impossible for me to make the two ends meet." His wife replied: "It's up to us to see that we are fed; you hustle and make one end meet and I'll make the other bread."

NO BETTING ON MICHIGAN GAME

President Van Hise Will Try to Stop This Action on Part of the Students.

(Special to The Gazette.)
Madison, Wis., Oct. 26.—President C. K. Van Hise is doing his utmost to prevent and discourage betting by students on football games and has proclaimed gambling in this manner to be an offense to be punished severely. He has caused a censorship to be placed on the student paper, and no advertisements of betting resorts or stakeholders can hereafter be published in that paper. Some advertisements of this kind appeared, but the president of the university complained to Professor C. S. Slichter, head of the Cardinal corporation. The result was the removal of the objectionable advertisements, and in the future all "ad. copy" will be carefully scrutinized. Betting at the big football games is perhaps no more prevalent here than at other universities, but President Van Hise is determined to stop it entirely if he can.

The Wisconsin team is having secret practice this week, but no guards are posted and many spectators observe the work from convenient distant places. The coaches say they have been annoyed by the large crowds of students on the side lines at the daily scrimmages. Coach Curtis said last night that there was no reason for posting student guards to watch for Michigan spies, because he knew the Wolverines did not operate that way. He was treated with the utmost courtesy last Saturday when he watched the Michigan team work at Ann Arbor and Assistant Coach Cole was similarly treated at Madison.

The final work this week in preparation for the Badgers' meeting with the Wolverines Saturday consists in two more hard scrimmages at Camp Randall. The second team has been drilled in the Michigan style of play and carries the ball much of the time as to strengthen the Wisconsin regulars' defense. A weakness, that of the backs failing to back up the scrimmage line on defensive play, it is believed has been largely corrected. It is feared that Wisconsin will be weak on the defensive because no teams have been met this year that were able to hold the ball long and therefore most of the practice in contests has been on offensive work. This is perhaps equally true with Michigan, but as the teams are both heavy and fast the necessity for defensive work will be great on the part of both elevens.

Animals That Count.

Evidence that animals can count has been collected by Signor Mancini. Horses in the colleries at Hainault have a regular number of daily trips, and invariably seek their stables after the thirtieth. A dog remembered the twenty-sixth buried bone a short time after digging up twenty-five. Birds count their eggs; magpies count only to four. The latter is true also of monkeys.

Give Warning on Match Boxes.

It is interesting to learn just now, when there is so much being done to prevent the spread of tuberculosis by expectoration, that the Argentine Health Department has been working on different lines to accomplish the same end. Simple instructions explaining how to prevent the spread of tuberculosis have been printed on the labels of more than eight million match boxes sent out as an experiment.

SUITS COMMENCED AGAINST ROADS

Attorney General Throws the Bomb That Has Been Contemplated.

(Special to The Gazette.)
Madison, Wis., October 26.—Suits have been commenced by Attorney General Surdyanant, of Wisconsin, against the Wisconsin Central, the Minneapolis, St. Paul and Northern Pacific, the Chicago and North Western, the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul roads. The suits are brought under sections 1211, 1212 and 1213 of the statutes of 1898, to recover the forfeiture of $10,000 each in revenue designated for failure to report all the gross earnings. Railroad Commissioner Thomas in his last official statement to Governor La Follette shows nearly $8,000,000 of unreported earnings. More than half of this amount was repayments of rebates to shippers. He reports that the sum of $313,889.80 was wrongfully withheld by the railroads from the state, being part of their license fee taxes imposed by law.

Lieutenant Colonel John A. Hull of the judge advocate general's department has been ordered to the Philippines for duty as judge advocate; relieving Lieutenant Colonel Harvey C. Carbaugh.

One Man's Meat Another's Poison.

In the rivers of some of the West Indian islands there abound fish which it would be deadly poison for Europeans to eat, but which the natives find a nourishing and enjoyable diet. In parts of New Zealand there grows a sort of orange which no one but a native can eat without becoming ill, while a couple would probably poison the average European.

BISHOP POTTER ON DIVORCES

Voices the Opinion of the Church Leaders on This Noted Question.

HAS FREEDOM BROUGHT PURITY?

Americans Are Urged to Consider Whether Righteousness Has Entered the Home Arm in Arm with Liberty.

[Special by Scripps-Mellie.]

Boston, Mass., Oct. 26.—The presentation of the pastoral letter upholding the sanctity of marriage and voicing an appeal for the preservation of the family was the principal feature of the closing session of the Episcopal conference Tuesday.

The letter was read by Bishop Potter of New York. After pointing out the necessity of supporting missions in Japan, China and other Oriental districts, the letter continued: "It is a question which we, in this republic, may wisely consider, whether, with greater freedoms, we have always won a greater purity or righteousness."

"At the basis of our social order is the family; and while we are fond of railing at our Oriental brethren for their polygamic constitution of that institution, it is worth while to ask ourselves the question whether the laws of this land are not in danger of bringing in, though by quite another road, a worse evil."

"The facility with which the marriage relation may be taken and put off is one of the menaces of our American civilization, to the possible perils of which Christian people are, as yet, imperfectly roused."

Labour Question One of Caste.
After urging that the Sabbath day be held sacred "from secular or frivolous intrusion," the letter takes up the labor and race questions.

Of the first the pastoral declares that "whatever labor organizations have accomplished they have mainly moved along lines which are the glory of our democratic institutions. However otherwise we may classify human society, that classification is universal which divides it into those who believe in the spirit of caste and those who do not."

"Journey where you will, the people that are in the thickest darkness to-day are those in which most absolutely the spirit of caste rules; and it our fathers came to these shores to escape from the domination of that rule, whether it expressed itself in civil or in ecclesiastical tyrannies, shall we resent it if, at last, the workingman has caught something of the same spirit and seeks to apply it to the constitution of that great industrial organism which is the most apt image of the modern state?"

Cannot Ignore Race Problem.
Touching the race problem the letter, after referring to the appointment of a joint commission to investigate the question, says:

"If by giving them (the negroes) freedom we have only given them the power to work mischief; and if lynching has come to be defended as a necessary protection to families, then, surely, we are face to face with a situation at once desperate and dishonouring. We may not ignore it; we cannot disown it. It is a part of our social situation, and if the church can have nothing to say about it, then she simply disowns her duty and her Master."

Huntington Amendment Goes Over.
There was a vigorous debate over the famous Huntington amendment permitting special forms of worship for congregations other than English in which charges of "railroading" the measure, through were made. The matter was put to a vote, however, and carried, but later it appeared that in the lay order there was no quorum of dioceses. The vote being illegal, the matter went over for another three years.

The proposition of dividing the country into ecclesiastical provinces was also laid over for three years.

The bishops spent much of their time naming committees and commissions and passing resolutions of thanks to Boston Episcopalians and people for their magnificent entertainment of the convention. The next convention will be held at Richmond, Va., in 1907.

STANDARD OIL MAKES ANSWER TO ITS ACCUSERS

Counsel for the Great Corporation Issues an Official Reply to All the Charges Made Against Concern.

New York, Oct. 26.—The Standard Oil company has set aside its traditions of years and has spoken officially to the public.

The great oil trust takes occasion to deny the charges made by Thomas W. Lawson in his "Frenzied Finance" and other accusations concerning what the Standard Oil is doing and going to do regarding the election of the president.

Up to the present day the policy of the Standard Oil company has been silence under any and all circumstances.

This policy has at last been departed from, and S. C. T. Dodd, counsel for the Standard Oil company, authorizes the following:

"In view of the many false and misleading statements from various sources, the directors of the Standard Oil company deem it advisable to state to the company's shareholders and the public that neither now nor at any time has the Standard Oil company or any of its constituent companies been interested in any business not directly related with and necessary to the petroleum trade."

Deals Only in Oil.
"It would be almost impossible to designate in this denial the different classes of business with which irresponsible parties have coupled the Standard Oil company name, but it may not be amiss to specify copper, steel, banks, railroads and gas (other than natural gas) as being most prominently mentioned. With none of these affairs has the Standard Oil company been at any time connected."

"Individual members of the Standard Oil company have been and are interested in a wide variety of business."

Big Consumption of Wheat.
Our home consumption of wheat for food is about five and a quarter bushels a year for each of our eighty-one million inhabitants. This per capita consumption appears to be interesting. The high prices of wheat are probably increasing the demand for bread.

Cat and Dog Names.
A volume might be written to tell the story of the world-wide names given to the cat and dog, as when they say "the miew-miew," the "bow-wow." The word "mew," which is from the Hebrew, describes the splittings of the cat; "hit," a variation of the word cat, and "Hiss!" or "Scat!" means the terested as individuals in various enterprises, but this is entirely outside of the business of the Standard Oil company, which is oil alone, unaffected by other interests in which its stockholders may invest.

"Neither is it true that the Standard Oil company, Mr. John D. Rockefeller, or any officer of the Standard Oil company has taken part in securing the nomination of any of the candidates for office, as is so positively stated."

Does Not Manipulate Stocks.
"Furthermore, it is entirely untrue that there is any 'Standard Oil party' banded together for speculation in stocks, as is so commonly charged."

"The name of Standard Oil company is frequently used by designing persons in the manipulation of the stock market, but its use is unwarranted."

"The Standard Oil company departs from its usual custom in making this denial for the reason that the statements being made, at this time by newspapers, magazines and sensational public speakers appear to be unusually mendacious, and may, to a great extent, mislead the public."

J. D. Rockefeller was so concerned after the statement was issued he remained at 26 Broadway until it was too late to return to Potomac.

His brother William, who lives near him at Tarrytown, was in the city all night. H. H. Rogers, John D. Archbold and Mr. Dodd denied themselves to reporters.

The statement regarding the nomination of a presidential candidate raises a question of veracity between Mr. Rockefeller and Mr. Lawson, but that regarding the manipulation of stocks disputes all Wall street traditions.

Little is known concerning the aggregation from the Forest city but a fierce opposition is expected by the members of the Janesville team. This will be the first football game of the season for the ward team, the telegraph student eleven having failed to show up either time that it was agreed to play and the class of the work done by the Bunker hill players will be shown in Sunday's game. NU-TRI-GLO & NATURE

REV. S. G. HUEY ON "WHAT COUNTS"

Furnished Opening Program for the Loyal Daughters' Circle Lecture Course at Methodist Church.

Last evening at the Central Methodist church opening program of the lecture course arranged for the winter by the Loyal Daughters' circle was enjoyed by an audience of about one hundred. Reverend S. G. Huey of the United Presbyterian church of Rock Prairie lectured on "What Counts in Attaining Success." The orchestra of the young people of the church furnished music in opening and closing. The selections and the way they were played showed a great deal of practice on the part of the orchestra as a whole and individual. Rev. Huey's lecture was a strong and interesting talk on what counts in daily life in attaining the truly practical success. His central theme was that to attain success one must win it. Money, ancestry, and intellect count in attaining it but above these character counts the most. That is the chief asset. Reputation is what others think we are, character is what we really know ourselves to be, and as our ideals so are our lives. And these qualities which go to make up character are within the reach of us all and is built little by little like the stalagmites in the grottoes and caverns, but such man is the architect of his own character. Knowledge also counts; it increases the value of the primitive form of the earth's riches; it enables one to grasp the opportunities. Knowledge is knowing and education is the arrangement of knowledge so that one can use it to better advantage. Cheerfulness also counts much toward the winning and worry is in all cases fretting over things that never happen. Toil is another thing that counts and it is by labor that the rest of the talents of men prove of use.—incessant toil is the attribute that counts more, for failures then are stepping stones to success while failures to those who wait retard them still more. Courage counts and faith also. The brambles of today are not successful in all phases of life because they have been unfaithful to themselves.

LIFE SAVED BY HORSE.

Drunken Sleeper Escapes Death Because Animal's Color Was Light.

A drunken smelterman, who refused to give his name, was saved from a horrible death merely by the fact that he was driving a light colored horse.

As the street car that left Black Eagle park at 9:41 a. m. on Eighth avenue was going at a speed of about ten miles an hour the motorman suddenly saw a gray horse standing on the track, and at once reversed his car and applied the brakes. When the car was stopped a drunken man, who had fallen from the wagon to which the gray horse was attached. The front wheels of the car had stopped less than two feet from the prostrate man, and if the horse had been of a dark color his drunken owner would undoubtedly have been ground to pieces. The drunken sleeper was easily aroused and, refusing to give his name, he clambered into his wagon and drove off to the smelter where he said he was employed.—Great Falls, Mont., Dispatch.

Start of an Iowa Lawyer.

An Iowa lawyer tells of his first months of practice. He went to a small country town and secured an office room, in front of which was placed the usual sign. Then he sat down and waited for his clients to appear, all the while feeling very much the dignity of his position. The day passed and no one called, and another, and another, until weeks went by, and still there had been no client.

One morning, however, he was at the depot to attend upon the arrival of the daily accommodation train, quite an important function of the town; when a handsome, well-dressed young lady approached and inquired, "Is this Mr. Smith?" At once the feeling of importance returned, and in his blundered tone replied: "It is, madam. What can I do for you?"

"Can you tell me how much it will cost to send a sow and pigs down to the next station?"—Green Bag.

Students of Advanced Age.

Rev. Edward Robie of Greenland, N. H., a student at the Harvard theological summer school, is 82 years of age and doubtless is the oldest student at any educational institution in the world; and he is not the only pupil of advanced years at the school named. Nearly all of the forty-seven who are attending the present session are not only mature in years, but men who are active pastors in churches. It is said that ten denominations are represented in the school, and the student body includes forty-seven ministers, one lawyer, one teacher and one Japanese student. This is Mr. Robie's third session at the Harvard school in five years.

Condensing Is Hard Work.

Champ Clark said that before he began to write his notification speech he counted the words in Speaker Cannon's speech notifying President Roosevelt. Cannon's speech contained 1,638 words. "I concluded that I would not be as long-winded as Uncle Joe," said Clark, "so I wrote 1,438 words, and, honestly, it was the hardest work I ever did in my life. A correspondent of the London Times once sent to that paper a letter five columns long and a note to the editor, saying: 'I send you a long letter to-day because I did not have time to write a short one.' I now understand the note of the Times' correspondent."

JUSTICE ASKS FOR A RETRIBUTION

Makes Appeal to the Voters of Rock County to Turn Down the Octopus.

The Milwaukee Sentinel prints the following communication from Janesville:

When the people of the great state of Wisconsin witness the sad spectacle of the general defacement of the fair name of our state, and its noble citizens who dare to assert their own manhood are blacklisted; when our noble junior United States Senator J. V. Quarles, who has enshrined himself in the hearts of all his countrymen, is to be turned down because he will not crush his manhood and bow to the dictator; when to cap the climax, our greatest statesman, Senator John C. Spooner, the equal if not the peer of any man in the United States senate, in this country, is vilified beyond endurance, when both of these senators are singularly clean in all their lives; is it not time for every independent man who loves the good name of our state to rise in his indignation and assert in the language of George William Curtis: "I carry my sovereignty under my own hat?"

ROOSEVELT INVITES THE POWERS TO MEET

Call to The Hague Peace Conference Includes Nations That Are Barred From Invoking Its Aid.

Washington, Oct. 26.—Acting Secretary of State Adey has dispatched a note looking to a reconvention of The Hague conference. The note is an invitation from President Roosevelt to the signatory powers of the original Hague treaty to come together again for the purpose of broadening and strengthening the original convention, and especially to consider means to ameliorate further the horrors of modern warfare, and to conserve and extend the rights of neutral commerce on the high seas.

In addition to the signatory powers the invitation goes to four of the South and Central American republics, which have signified an earnest desire to adhere to The Hague treaty, but so far have been prevented from doing so by the singular omission of a general clause, usual in such treaties, allowing powers to adhere to the articles of the treaty upon their own application.

The note is directed to the American ambassadors and ministers abroad, with instructions to sound the governments to which they are accredited, and to extend President Roosevelt's invitation in such terms as they see fit. While the President has in his invitation suggested The Hague as a proper meeting place for the conference, a majority of the powers must determine that, as well as the date of the meeting.

Manchurian Rainy Season.

The St. James Gazette says: "The rainy season in southern Manchuria is not so bad as it has been represented to be. Residents of long experience state that while there are days in which heavy falls of rain take place, there are not many consecutive days in which torrential rains are experienced. When a really heavy downpour of rain of some hours' duration occurs it is almost invariably followed by three or four weeks of splendid dry, bracing weather. There is no finer summer climate in the world than that of southern Manchuria. The temperature in the shade is seldom above 88 degrees."

YOUNG WIFEHOOD

Boston, Mass., 152 Shawmut Ave., Oct. 25, 1902.

After I had been married about four months I felt my health generally decline. I seemed to lose the light step and dragged wearily along instead. My appetite failed me and I lost health and strength. I was nervous and had shooting pains through my limbs and stomach while bearing down pains and constant headaches added to my misery. I was unable to attend to my daily duties. My husband called in three different physicians and I took enough medicine to kill or cure a dozen women, but it all had no effect on me whatever, until I took Wine of Cardui. In a few days I felt a change for the better, my general health improved and at the next time of my periods my flow was more natural and I was in less pain. Gradually I recovered my health and strength and am now in perfect health. I take an occasional dose of Wine of Cardui which keeps me well.

I am happy to give you this endorsement.

Betty Ricker

President, Back Bay Woman's Club.

Why don't you try for the same health Mrs. Ricker has? It is easy to secure if you take Wine of Cardui according to directions. Wine of Cardui strengthens weak and worn-out women of any age and assists the mother and housewife to bear her exacting duties. Wine of Cardui makes women fit for all the duties of womanhood.

It will relieve the pains of irregularity, cures falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, ovarian troubles, and has been known to remove what physicians considered dangerous tumors. Women who use Wine of Cardui do not suffer at the monthly periods. They do not suffer hysterical attacks, because Wine of Cardui gives them strong nerves freed from the irritation of female suffering.

A $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui purchased from your druggist will keep you free from pain.

A FRIEND OF LABOR.

Theodore Roosevelt from the day his entrance into public life, over 20 years ago has been a consistent and unselfish friend of the man who toils. As a member of the New York Assembly, as Civil Service Commissioner, as Assistant Secretary of the Navy, as Governor of New York, as President of the United States, he has never failed to show a real loyalty to the true interests of labor. In his first message to Congress as President he said:

"The most vital problem with which this country, and for that matter the whole civilized world, has to deal, is the problem which has for one side the betterment of social conditions, moral and physical, in large cities, and for another side, the effort to deal with that tangle of far-reaching questions, which we group together when we speak of labor."

His entire record as legislator and executive is consistent with that utterance.

In the New York Assembly As a member of the New York Assembly he voted for the following bills:

Abolish tenement-house cigar making in New York City.
Restricting child labor in factories and workshops.
Regulating the labor hours of minors and women in manufacturing establishments.
Safe-guarding the lives and limbs of factory operatives.
Regulating wage rates of laborers employed by municipalities.
Making employees preferred creditors.
Providing for building mechanics' liens.
Prescribing the lien rights of working women.
Protecting machines and laborers engaged in sinking oil or gas wells.
Abolishing contract child labor in reformatory institutions.
Creating a commission to examine into the operation of the contract system of employing convicts.
Establishing the bureau of labor statistics.
To promote industrial peace.
For a 5-cent fare on the New York city elevated railroad.
Incorporating the New York City Free Circulating Bureau.
For free public baths in New York city.

As Governor of New York While governor of New York he approved the following measures:

Creating a tenement-house commission.
Regulating sweat shop labor.
Empowering the factory inspector to enforce the scaffolding law.
Directing the factory inspector to enforce the act regulating labor hours on railroads.
Making the eight-hour and prevailing rate-of-wages effective.
Amending the factory act.
(1) Protecting employees at work on buildings.
(2) Regulating the working time of female employees.
(3) Providing that stairways shall be properly lighted.
(4) Prohibiting the operation of dangerous machinery by children.
(5) Prohibiting women and minors working on polishing or buffing wheels.
(6) Providing for seats for waitresses in hotels and restaurants.
Shortening the working hours of drug clerks.
Increasing the salaries of New York city school teachers.
Extending to other engineers the law licensing New York city engineers and making it a misdemeanor for violating the same.
Licensing stationary engineers in Buffalo.
Providing for the examination and registration of horseholders in cities.
Registration of laborers for municipal employment.
Relating to air brakes on freight trains.
Providing means for the issuance of quarterly bulletins by the bureau of labor statistics.
In addition to the foregoing, while Governor of New York he recommended legislation (which the Legislature failed to pass) in regard to Employers' liability.

State control of employment of offices.
State ownership of printing plant.
Devising means whereby free mechanics shall not be brought into competition with prison labor.
As President of the United States As President of the United States he has signed the following bills:
Renewing the Chinese exclusion act and extending its provisions to the island territory of the United States.

Prohibiting the employment of Mongolian labor on irrigation works and providing that eight hours shall constitute a day's labor on such projects.
Abolishing slavery and involuntary servitude in the Philippine Islands violation of the act being punishable by forfeiture of contracts and a fine of not less than $10,000.
Protecting the lives of employees in coal mines in territories by regulating the amount of ventilation and providing that entries, etc., shall be kept well dampened with water to cause coal dust to settle.
Exempting from taxation in the District of Columbia, household belongings to the value of $1,000, wearing apparel, libraries, school books, family portraits and heirlooms.
Regulating proprietors of employment offices in the District of Columbia to pay a license tax of $10 per year.
Creating the department of Commerce and Labor and making its head a cabinet officer.
Improving the act relating to safety appliances on railroads.
Increasing the restrictions upon the immigration of cheap foreign labor and prohibiting the landing of alien anarchists.

JOHN HOGAN

In the death of John Hogan the city of Janesville loses a true citizen and a worthy and efficient servant. During his long term of service as city marshal he has earned a reputation for integrity and honesty that is enviable. Mr. Hogan departed this life in the prime of his manhood, at the zenith of his glory. Death comes as a relief after years of suffering which he has borne with fitting patience and a truly Christian spirit. His long service as a city official should deserve special recognition by the council and by citizens who knew and loved him. An earnest and fearless worker he goes to his last resting place confident that having fought the good fight here, that in the hereafter peace eternal, which passes man's understanding, is his.

Every Chicago paper and many of the leading magazines of the country have decried Wisconsin as a very corrupt state. Really the people who live here would not know it unless they were told. But perhaps they are so steeped in crime they have lost the sense of touch.

The Milwaukee Journal takes exception to the Gazette's attitude on county affairs. Well really, Mr. Journal, the Gazette has not received seventy five dollars a day for its political opinion. No never. What advice it has been able to give the public has been free of charge.

For a democratic paper the Milwaukee Journal makes the poorest excuse at trying to find the notes of its competitors and forgetting the beams in its own.

People who live in glass houses should not throw stones, is a motto that should be pasted in every one of the governor's supporters hats.

So the governor is to go after the telephone companies when he finishes with the railways. Woe to the telephone companies.

PRESS COMMENT

Cincinnati Commercial Tribune: Colonel Ed. Butler indignantly declares that he is out of politics because, "there isn't anything in it for an honest man." But how does the makes home baking easy. Nothing can be substituted for it in making, quickly and perfectly, delicate hot biscuit, hot-breads, muffins, cake and pastry.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

PRICE BAKING POWDER CO., CHICAGO.

Colonel know?

Racine Journal: That famous 1804 dollar has again been heard from. This time bringing $1,100 in a sale of rare coins at New York.

La Crosse Chronicle: La Follette may yet insist that the national committee send President Roosevelt into Wisconsin to take the stamp for his ticket.

Chicago Record-Herald: It is but fair to suppose that Admiral Rojevsky feels a good deal like a sleep-walker who has awakened after falling downstairs.

Evening Wisconsin: A sixteen year old boy captured the $500 prize for kite-flying at the world's fair. The kite has yet to be found that will fly higher with a man at the end of the twine than it will for a boy.

Oshkosh Northwestern: Governor La Follette is depending upon the votes of Democrats to re-elect him, but if the leaders of that party are not mistaken the governor is going to meet with the greatest surprise of his life.

Madison Journal: What is there about an automobile which turns a man who has been a gentleman all his life into a reckless, selfish, disregard of every one else's rights as soon as he learns how to operate the machine?

Milwaukee Sentinel: Now that the cat is out of the bag, it may as well be acknowledged that, if to vote against a candidate is to "kill" him, there will be enough "killing" of the La Follette ticket this year to remove all doubt as to the result of the election. And with the example set by the governor himself it is not believed any apologies will be required from those who engage in the gentle practice of "killing" the La Follette state ticket.

Chicago Tribune: What amends will be acceptable to Great Britain? There must be a humble apology. Generous compensation must be made for the property destroyed and lives taken. The chief offender must be punished, not matter how high his rank. A St. Petersburg dispatch says the firing on the fishing boats could not have been the act of a captain, because only the admiral could assume such a responsibility. If Admiral Rojevsky was actually responsible Russia should, for its own sake, remove him. Such a man is not fit to command a rowboat, much less a squadron of warships. His nerves are too twitchy.

Eau Claire Leader: And a good deal of it is all buncombe. Here's Walter Wellman, closeted with the governor for some days coming out and telling Wisconsin has only two great men—one of them Senator Spooner and the other of course, governor La Follette. He says even the La Follette men want to keep Spooner in the state. And right on top of this, comes chairman Bryant the godfather of La Follette shouting as he hurries cures at Senator Spooner "No rogue are felt the halter draw with good opinion of the law." No truly do the La Follette men not want Spooner but these use every opportunity to show a feeling against him that goes a little deeper than just politics.

JUDGE PARKER REGISTERS.

Kingston, N. Y., Oct. 14.—A lone horseman rode into this city today and pulled up in front of the old pottery, where the registration board of the Third District of the Ninth Ward was at work, says the New York Sun. A young member of the board looked up and asked: "Do you want to register?" "Yes Sir," was the reply. "Your full name, please." "Alton Brooks Parker." The young registration official looked up again and glanced surreptitiously at a campaign lithograph of the Democratic candidate for president which was one of the few decorations of the old building. Apologetically he explained: "You know we ask the question as a matter of form, Judge." The Judge nodded, but his eye twinkled as he turned to the fact that the young man failed to recognize him.

ANGEL OF DEATH ENDS HIS LIFE

JOHN W. HOGAN HAS PASSED TO THE BEYOND.

THE CITY HAS LOST A FRIEND

His Long Service Has Endowed Him to the Hearts of Thousands—
His Life Is Closed.

John Hogan has passed away. Janesville has lost a city marshal and a good citizen. Rock county has lost an honest and fearless officer. His death came as a blessed relief to years of suffering and surrounded by his family the spirit of the chief passed into the realm beyond shortly before seven last evening. John Hogan was a man of sterling character and indomitable courage. During his long service as marshal of Janesville he won the confidence of every law-abiding citizen and was the terror of evil-doers. For years Mr. Hogan was the only officer in the city. For years he patrolled the streets night and day. His long service has endeared him to Janesville people and they sorrow with his bereaved family in this their affliction.

Early Life.
John Hogan was of Irish parentage. Born in Stockbridge, Massachusetts, May 27, 1832, young Hogan came west with his parents, settling in Rock county. Mr. Hogan was reared on his father's farm in the town of La Prairie and received his education at the district school. When twenty years of age he moved to Janesville and for two years was engaged in the grocery business with his brother-in-law, T. H. Keating. Tiring of this line of work, Mr. Hogan returned to his father's farm where he staid six years. Then began his career as a police officer which lasted until his eyes were closed by the angel of death last evening.

JOHN W. HOGAN

Police Officer.
In 1873 John Hogan was appointed an officer at the industrial school at Waubesa, serving two years in that institution as officer in charge of the boys' workshop. Returning to Janesville he was appointed city marshal by Mayor Samuel Cobb and a few days later was officially elected to this office by the common council. As an officer, Hogan had few peers in the state of Wisconsin. His able handling of the city for ten years brought his reward by his election to the office of sheriff in 1903 on the democratic ticket and he served for two years in this capacity. He also acted as deputy sheriff during the regimes of R. B. Harper and George Hanthorn. Returning to the position of city marshal in 1892 Mr. Hogan has served the city faithfully up to the moment of his death. He has seen the city grow from a village to a thriving city. He has seen conditions change and his work become more complicated but he has always met every emergency with rare judgment.

As the Man.
As the man and citizen John Hogan has been a loyal friend and advisor to hundreds. He has united families estranged through quarrels and has comforted the sorrowing and sick. He was a member of the A. O. U. W. lodge No. 1, and a charter member of the Catholic Knights of Wisconsin, Branch 60. He was also a charter member of the Carroll Council, No. 596, Knights of Columbus. In which order he has always taken a conspicuous part. He was married in 1881 on January 26 to Miss Elizabeth Lawler. Of this union seven children have been born, who, with the widow survive their loving parent—Thomas, Bertha, William, Frank, Joseph, Leo, and Robert. All were present at the bedside of their father when he passed away except William and Thomas who arrived this morning. Mr. Hogan was a loving father and proud of his children. His home life was pleasant and in the circle of his many friends his place can never be filled.

As the Officer.
As the police officer John Hogan was quick to act. He was a man of powerful physique. Quiet, kindly and courteous to those in trouble, he was the terror of malefactors. Crooks would travel long distances to avoid Janesville and every rough and tough of the city feared the wrath of the marshal if caught in evil-doing. John Hogan used his head as well as his club and many a young boy and young girl have been given kindly talks by him, shown the evil of their ways and have been excused the offense without having been brought to the disgrace of appearing in court and thus blighting their lives for ever after. Until his last sickness Mr. Hogan has been an active disciple of the law. Even when enfeebled with disease and racked with pain he has appeared upon the streets that his presence might assist his officers in upholding the dignity of the law. In the death of John Hogan the whole city mourns. They have lost a true friend and counselor.

The Funeral.
The funeral will be held on Friday morning at 9:00 o'clock from St. Patrick's church, of which congregation he was a member. He will be laid at rest at Mt. Olivet cemetery. The orders to which he belonged will attend the funeral en masse and as a token of respect the city hall and the city's public buildings will be draped in mourning. Last evening when the news of the marshal's death became known the bells at the fire engine houses tolled the sad news to the city. It was a touching tribute to the departed.

THE WEATHER.

Temperature last 24 hours taken from U. S. registered thermometer at Helmsstreet's drugstore: highest, 45 above; lowest, 34 above; ther, at 7 a. m., 34; at 3 p. m., 44; wind, north; pleasant.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY IN SPRING GROVE

Sixteen Year Old Effie Loss Fatally
Wounded by Six Year Old Brother Monday.

Last Monday night a terrible tragedy occurred in the home of John Loss who lives on the Atwood place near the Mount Hope church in Spring Grove. Sixteen-year-old Effie Loss was washing the supper dishes in the kitchen when her little six-year-old brother picked up a 32-calibre rifle that had been left in one corner of the room by an older brother on his return from a hunting trip and from which he neglected to pull the cartridge. The child playfully pointed the weapon at his sister, who had her back turned towards him, and pulled the trigger. The bullet entered her back near the shoulder blade and came out on the side, to the left of the breast bone. She ran to the barn to tell members of the family what had happened and reached the house again before her strength began to fail her. Dr. W. T. Nuzum of Brodhead was summoned and found on examination that the bullet had penetrated both the lungs and liver. Death resulted from hemorrhage shortly thereafter.

From the Rest of the Help at Russell's Barn.

Charles Roberts, who came to this city three weeks ago from Watertown, has undoubtedly come to some other town now, and in his possession very likely has a pair of oxfords of Alva Russell's, a gold watch, an overcoat and razor belonging to Harry Kemmett. When he came to this city he had with him a recommendation from the manager of Schmidt's livery in Watertown and sought employment which he secured at the barn of A. A. Russell. Night before last he left the articles named were found to be missing. Nothing else was taken as far as is known now.
